Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

*Inviting God, laying open your table
to the deviant and deranged, setting a place for the foreign and unwanted:
overturn our tables of power and teach us to receive bread from strange and wounded hands;
through Jesus Christ, the One given for all. Amen.*

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Jeremiah 2:4-13

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord:

What wrong did your ancestors find in me
that they went far from me,
and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves?

They did not say, "Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness,
in a land of deserts and pits,
in a land of drought and deep darkness,
in a land that no one passes through,
where no one lives?"

I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things.
But when you entered you defiled my land,
and made my heritage an abomination.

The priests did not say, "Where is the Lord?"
Those who handle the law did not know me;
the rulers transgressed against me;
the prophets prophesied by Baal,
and went after things that do not profit.

Therefore once more I accuse you, says the Lord,
and I accuse your children's children.

Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look,

send to Kedar and examine with care;
 see if there has ever been such a thing.
 Has a nation changed its gods,
 even though they are no gods?
 But my people have changed their glory
 for something that does not profit.
 Be appalled, O heavens, at this,
 be shocked, be utterly desolate,
 says the Lord,
 for my people have committed two evils:
 they have forsaken me,
 the fountain of living water,
 and dug out cisterns for themselves,
 cracked cisterns
 that can hold no water.

Psalm 112

Beatus vir

The Hymnal, S409

- 1 Happy are they who fear the Most High and have great delight in God's com-mandments!
- 2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches will be in their house, and their righteousness will last for ever.
- 4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright; the righteous are merciful and full of com-pan-sion.
- 5 It is good for them to be generous in lending and to manage their affairs with justice.
- 6 For they will never be shaken; the righteous will be kept in everlasting re-mem-brance.
- 7 They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; their heart is right; they put their trust in God.
- 8 Their heart is established and will not shrink, until they see their desire upon their enemies.
- 9 They have given freely to the poor, and their righteousness stands fast for ever; they will hold up their head with honor.
- 10 The wicked will see it and be angry; they will gnash their teeth and pine a-way;
 the desires of the wicked will perish.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." So we can say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.
What can anyone do to me?"

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

The Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

The people respond Glory to you, O Christ.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Gospeler The Gospel of our Savior.
The people respond Praise to you, O Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant

Let us pray with the assurance given to the Virgin Mary by the archangel Gabriel: “Nothing is impossible with God.”

Leader

Eternal God, Author of all creation, thank you for our earthly home set among the planets and stars (please add petitions). We ask your wisdom for its welfare.

People The earth, O God, is yours, held in trust for generations yet unborn. As once Jesus befriended and calmed a stormy sea, make us friends of the earth.

We pray for the inclusive Church of Christ scattered among the nations Mend its brokenness and endow its shepherds with vision and courage.

People Hold close in your care Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop, Marc our Bishop, Cameron our Long Term Supply Priest, Margaret our Deacon, the Community of St. Francis, and all who serve you faithfully.

In a world longing for peace, call forth leaders worthy of the public trust Like the aggrieved widow praised by Jesus, grant us perseverance in pursuit of all that is good and just.

People May we live in solidarity with Mary, the Mother of Jesus, singing boldly her song: “God has brought down the powerful from their thrones and lifted up the lowly.”

Forgive the greed of cruel cultures of bigger barns and shameful bank accounts in a world of massive poverty Show us the more excellent way of extravagant sharing.

People Free us from selfishness that separates us from you. Open us to Jesus’ warning: “So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves and are not rich toward God.”

Touch with wholeness the sick and the injured, and grant comfort to the dying May those who provide care and solace for others entertain angels unawares.

People Open our eyes to see that every act of mercy and kindness is a Sabbath blessing offered in your Name, O God.

Eternal rest grant to our beloved who have died Their love for you and for us is a treasure beyond all price and shall never die.

People By your grace make us worthy of their friendship through lives lived to your praise and glory.

Celebrant

Merciful God, by the intercession of your Holy Spirit receive our prayers. You call all who love their enemies “children of the Most High.” Make us signs of love’s gentle power to transform hate into hope in a world full of fear; we ask this through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

We greet each other in the name of Christ.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant May God be with you.

People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

In wonder we thank you, God of all peoples and nations, for the gift of creation brought forth by your gracious will. With Abraham and Sarah we rejoice that we are your children, made in your likeness, and are more numerous than the stars in the heavens.

We celebrate the faithfulness of Moses, Elijah, Zechariah and Elizabeth, their son John the Baptist, and all the prophets and martyrs of every age. We thank you for your Child, Jesus, born of the Holy Spirit and your servant Mary and embraced by Joseph, her spouse. We rejoice with Simeon and Anna that, through the Child of Bethlehem, you offer salvation “in the presence of all peoples and for the glory of your people Israel.”

We remember with joy the shepherds in awe at your Child’s manger, and the angelic message of long ago, “See, I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people,” as we sing to your glory:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
 God of power and might, — heaven and earth are full — of your glo - ry.
 Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

In faithfulness to your will, your Child touched the lives of the untouchable and unmasked false boundaries to mend the wounds of all. We thank you that Jesus, noticing what was in plain sight but was ignored by reluctant eyes, commanded everyone to “see.”

To those scandalized by the anointing of Jesus’ feet at the hands of a sinner from the streets, your Child asked, “Do you see this woman?” To a foreigner healed of leprosy, who returned to praise you, Jesus announced, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.” To Zacchaeus, a hated tax collector in a tree above the crowds, Jesus, to the shock of critics, looked up and said: “I must stay at your house today.”

Foreigners and outsiders found in the Healer from Nazareth a community of belonging. Peter’s mother-in-law, Mary and Martha of Bethany, and two pilgrims on Easter evening were among those who welcomed your Child into their homes and lives. The Savior, who had no place to lay his head, turned humble homes into sanctuaries of heaven on earth. We implore you, O God, open our clenched eyes that we, too, may see your vision of one human family living in peace on the face of the earth.

At the invitation of your Child, we gather at this holy table with the trust of little children. We remember that at supper with the disciples, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my Body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. When you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Here at your Table, Blessed Savior, in company with the cloud of witnesses and with the church throughout the world, open our eyes that we may recognize you in the breaking of bread and sharing of the cup, and confess boldly:

*We remember your death, O Christ,
We proclaim your resurrection,
We await your coming in glory.*

We pray, God of all mercy, send your Holy Spirit upon us and these gifts of bread and wine that they may be for us the sacrament of Christ’s body and blood, holy food for holy people. Nourish us with the presence of the risen Christ on the pilgrim journey of your church through the world of our time.

We ask this through your Child, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN

Invitation to the Table

The Celebrant invites all who wish to come to the Table by saying:

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

*During Communion all are invited to receive either the Sacrament or a blessing;
gluten-free wafers are available.*

Wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are always welcome at Holy Innocents.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion for those worshipping with us online:

Jesus, we believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. We desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving as we proclaim your resurrection. We love you above all things, and long for you in our souls. Since we cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Celebrant & People

We thank you, Eternal God, for the feast of your love shared at this table. You welcome us home to your heart even when we know we are not worthy to be called your children. Send us forth with joy and make us living signs of the peace and good will announced by the angels at the birth of your Child, Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.
