Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Holy God, giver of blessing to hungry and hated, overturner of ordered tables of friendship and enmity: teach us a new way of being beyond reward, beyond revenge; that we may do to others as we would have them do to us; through Jesus Christ, who prays for all who crucify him. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Psalm 149

Cantate Domino

The Hymnal, S410

- 1 Sing to our God a new song;* sing praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker;* let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

- 3 Let them praise God's Name in the dance;* let them sing praise with timbrel and harp.
 4 For you, O God, take pleasure in your people and adorn the poor with victory.
 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph;* let them be joyful on their beds.
 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat and a two-edged sword in their hand;
 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples;
 8 To bind their rulers in chains and their nobles with links of iron;
 +9 To inflict on them the judgment de-creed;* this is glory for all God's faithful people.
 Halle-lujah.

The Second Reading

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Gospel

Luke 6:20-31

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

The people respond Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

"Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

"Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets."

"But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

"Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

"Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

"Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

"But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Reaffirmation of Baptismal Vows

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth,

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People *I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son our Lord,
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.*

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers
People I will with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity and beauty of the environment and every human being?
People I will with God's help.

Prayers of the People

During the pause after each bidding, the people offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Deacon / Celebrant

Let us pray with the assurance given to the Virgin Mary by the archangel Gabriel: "Nothing is impossible with God."

Leader:

Eternal God, Author of all creation, thank you for our earthly home set among the planets and stars (please add petitions). We ask your wisdom for its welfare.

The earth, O God, is yours, held in trust for generations yet unborn. As once Jesus befriended and calmed a stormy sea, make us friends of the earth.

We pray for the inclusive Church of Christ scattered among the nations Mend its brokenness and endow its shepherds with vision and courage.

Hold close in your care Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael our Presiding Bishop, Marc our Bishop, Cameron our Interim Vicar, Margaret our Deacon, the Community of St. Francis, and all who serve you faithfully.

Ingathering Sunday Prayer

Gracious and loving God, giver of all that is good and true and beautiful and life-giving. These pledge cards represent our sweat, they represent our lives, they represent our dreams. The pledges which we make on them are but tokens of the awesome gifts that have been given to us and they are pledged in thanksgiving for all we have received, for all we have been inspired to be, for all we are challenged to become, in this place.

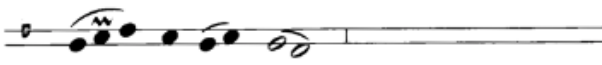

May they be the first fruits of all we have and not what we have left over, so that we may live out as closely as possible how you give to us. May we see them as our offering to you, sacred, holy, yet earthly, filled with possibilities. May we hold this image in our hearts and minds so as we watch our offerings each week come to your table, we can see our very selves being part of this offering, it is us on the table, living sacrifices to you.

Amen

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  May God be with you.

People  And al - so with you.

Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.

People  We lift them to God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

In wonder we thank you, God of all peoples and nations, for the gift of creation brought forth by your gracious will. With Abraham and Sarah we rejoice that we are your children, made in your likeness, and are more numerous than the stars in the heavens.

We celebrate the faithfulness of Moses, Elijah, Zechariah and Elizabeth, their son John the Baptist, and all the prophets and martyrs of every age. We thank you for your Child, Jesus, born of the Holy Spirit and your servant Mary and embraced by Joseph, her spouse. We rejoice with Simeon and Anna that, through the Child of Bethlehem, you offer salvation “in the presence of all peoples and for the glory of your people Israel.”

We remember with joy the shepherds in awe at your Child’s manger, and the angelic message of long ago, “See, I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people,” as we sing to your glory:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly— Lord, God of pow-er and 4 might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est.
 8 Blest is the One who comes in the name of our God. Ho - san - a in the high-est. _____

In faithfulness to your will, your Child touched the lives of the untouchable and unmasked false boundaries to mend the wounds of all. We thank you that Jesus, noticing what was in plain sight but was ignored by reluctant eyes, commanded everyone to “see.”

To those scandalized by the anointing of Jesus’ feet at the hands of a sinner from the streets, your Child asked, “Do you see this woman?” To a foreigner healed of leprosy, who returned to praise you, Jesus announced, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.” To Zacchaeus, a hated tax collector in a tree above the crowds, Jesus, to the shock of critics, looked up and said: “I must stay at your house today.”

Foreigners and outsiders found in the Healer from Nazareth a community of belonging. Peter’s mother-in-law, Mary and Martha of Bethany, and two pilgrims on Easter evening were among those who welcomed your Child into their homes and lives. The Savior, who had no place to lay his head, turned humble homes into sanctuaries of heaven on earth. We implore you, O God, open our clenched eyes that we, too, may see your vision of one human family living in peace on the face of the earth.

At the invitation of your Child, we gather at this holy table with the trust of little children. We remember that at supper with the disciples, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my Body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. When you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Here at your Table, Blessed Savior, in company with the cloud of witnesses and with the church throughout the world, open our eyes that we may recognize you in the breaking of bread and sharing of the cup, and confess boldly:

*We remember your death, O Christ,
We proclaim your resurrection,
We await your coming in glory.*

We pray, God of all mercy, send your Holy Spirit upon us and these gifts of bread and wine that they may be for us the sacrament of Christ's body and blood, holy food for holy people. Nourish us with the presence of the risen Christ on the pilgrim journey of your church through the world of our time.

We ask this through your Child, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to the Table

The Celebrant invites all who wish to come to the Table by saying:

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

During Communion all are invited to receive either the Sacrament or a blessing; gluten-free wafers are available.

Wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are always welcome at Holy Innocents.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion for those worshipping with us online:

Jesus, we believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. We desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving as we proclaim your resurrection. We love you above all things, and long for you in our souls. Since we cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant & People We thank you, Eternal God, for the feast of your love shared at this table. You welcome us home to your heart even when we know we are not worthy to be called your children. Send us forth with joy and make us living signs of the peace and good will announced by the angels at the birth of your Child, Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

- Participate in the Search for the Ninth Bishop of California!

Bishop Marc Andrus will be retiring as Bishop of California in 2024, and already the search for a new bishop is underway. There are many opportunities to have your voice heard in the process, and it begins in November!

The Diocese will be holding listening sessions around the Bay Area throughout November as a part of the process for searching for a new bishop. The one for San Francisco is scheduled on Wednesday, November 16 from 6-8 PM at St. Gregory Nyssa in Potrero Hill. While this is the local one, you may attend any of them across the Bay Area as your schedule allows. The complete list can be found here: <https://diocalbishopsearch.org/2022/10/25/diocesan-listening-sessions-announced/>

Keep the website handy for updates and more information as we move into 2023. <https://diocalbishopsearch.org/>

You are also welcome to reach out to members of the Bishop's Search Committee with questions and feedback. You'll note that Holy Innocents has two members on it: our own Venerable Margaret Dyer Chamberlain and our parishioner Neil Penick. <https://diocalbishopsearch.org/search-committee/>
